

In the last ten days, the U.S. Department of Labor and the IRS have released significant guidance on the paid sick and family leave provisions of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act. Join Moreton & Company on Monday, April 13th at 10:00 am for a Q&A session as Carolyn Cox and Jenny Chester discuss the details provided by the DOL, including:

- How FFCRA family leave coordinates with regular FMLA leave.
- What documentation can (and should) an employer request from employees seeking leave?
- What constitutes a “quarantine” order for purposes of FFCRA’s sick leave provisions?
- Can an employee use paid sick and family leave intermittently?
- Does my company qualify for the FFCRA small business exception?
- How do I claim the tax credit?

We encourage you to submit questions ahead of time. Please send questions to ccox@moreton.com. Participants can also submit additional questions during the broadcast. Sign up today!

Webinar: Mon., April. 13th, 2020

10:00 AM to 11:00 AM (MDT)

Click Here to Register

register.gotowebinar.com/register/2812174017451600653

Join us for a Q&A Webinar Focusing on:
Q&A and Deep Dive on Paid Sick and Family
Leave Under FFCRA

 MORETON & COMPANY